

The Farms to Food Banks program strengthens Kentucky’s agricultural economy by providing a new outlet for surplus and Number 2 produce while improving access to healthy food among hungry Kentuckians. Because of the program, our members were able to distribute more produce throughout Kentucky.

2019 IMPACT ON KENTUCKIANS IN NEED

4,803,000
Meals supplemented

2,912,000

Pounds of Kentucky-grown produce distributed to hungry individuals residing throughout Kentucky

28

Types of produce distributed

120

Counties received produce

497

Agencies received produce

$643,000

Produce purchases

$291,000

In-kind contributions

2019 IMPACT ON KENTUCKY FARMERS

$1,273

Avg payment per farmer

336

Number of participants

60

Number of counties

$88,205

Maximum paid to farmer

11

Farmers receiving > $10,000

THANK YOU TO THE SPONSORS
OF FARMS TO FOOD BANKS

